PRESIDENT'S LETTER

---

It is hard to believe how fast this year is going. It seems like the January shows were just last weekend and already the heat of summer will soon be done, the fall shows are cranking up and our specialty is 90 days away. Our specialty judges are in place, our show site is signed up, the hotel is contracted, the show secretary is getting the entry process ready, hospitality is well under way and the trophies are ordered. The raffle is getting organized and items are starting to appear. If you have items for the raffle, call Dale Staples or Flo Jones. If you have not yet signed up to help with the show contact Lisa Bailey or any board member we will be glad for anything you can do. We are really looking forward to this year's show and it promises to be another really good one. We hope you will be there with as many labs as you can bring for good times great food and our annual weekend celebration of Labradors.

On a separate but sad note our good friend and founding member Jimmy Carroll has gone to be with the Lord. Jimmy was half of Valcar kennels with Clint Vail. Together Clint and Jimmy accomplished a great in our breed and while not as well known to us were also extremely successful in Gordon Setters. Jimmy was famous for his big heart, his always smiling face, his knowledge of Labradors and his dry sense of humor. He will be sorely missed. We extend our condolences to his family and his long time kennel partner and lifetime friend Clint Vail.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The AKC announced that the 2017 National Agility, Rally, and Obedience Championships will be held in Perry, GA at the Ag Center next March 24-26. For details on the events, including qualifying dates and scores, go to AKC.org/events. If you or a friend is interested in attending, word is out and hotels are already at or near capacity. These events draw the top competitors in their sports from around the country.

The GALRC is looking at ways to support the companion events including advertising in the National Championships catalog. The AKC also will put out a call for volunteers later this year, so please think about ways you can help. After participating in the 2015 Rally National Championship in St. Louis as a competitor, I know it takes many volunteers to host these events.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Rehkopf
