ANNOUNCEMENTS

GALRC WEBSITE

The GALRC website is getting a facelift thanks to member Jean McLain. Included in this revamping will be a new member breeder's directory. This will allow the public to locate breeders who are club members. To be included, please send the following information to Jean at jean@galrc.com, using the following format.

Kennel Name: Contact Person:

Website:

Email Address:

Phone:

General Info: brief

Puppies Available: Dates – Yes/No – Frequency

The GALRC site is live - I've added some more info this week – the site offers a lot of opportunity, but needs participation to make it more interesting. I have a few more pages to fill in, but I'm afraid I don't have enough time to continually update it without some help – I'm happy to enter content if someone wants to provide it.

Also, only have about 9 kennels listed – it's free – maybe a reminder?

There is an area for "Events" – anyone have anything to add – upcoming shows – potential majors - training?

Thanks, Jean

"DogLife Labrador Retriever," my first published book, will be released on Aug. 30; the book already is available online at Amazon.com and Barnes & Noble; and will be available in bookstores throughout the U.S. and Canada in early September. Amazon sold out of its first available stock and has received a new shipment. Many thanks for considering this for yourself and your puppy buyers!

TarKom Labradors has great labs available!
Shasta is a beautiful 5 year old yellow girl. She is a full time house dog who ADORES people.

The black girls - 4, 6 month olds. These girls are housebroken and crate trained and are very sweet and friendly. They are on the smaller side, and would make great apartment sized labs. Parents are OFA, EIC and PRA clear.

Puppies - Black and chocolate males and females, 12 weeks old. Parents have appropriate clearnaces.
